

LET HIM GO (Todini)

When a boy calls you he doesn't always love you maybe he wants something from you but you don't know you don't care because you like it try to convince yourself with sweet words but it's not the truth

When you realize that is just an illusion run away you have still time and you are just a number for him, for him.

Let him go let him go let him go you don't deserve it let him go let him go let him go Leave it to fate oh uh let him go let him go let him go you don't deserve it leave it to fate
let him go let him go let him go Leave it to fate.

So girl you are holding on don't worry that you'll find true love don't look for it in anyone or you could get Burned let it rot!

When you realize that is just an illusion
and you are just a number for him for him for him

Let him go let him go let him go
you don't deserve it
let him go let him go let him go Leave it to fate
oh uh let him go let him go let him go you don't deserve it
leave it to fate
let him go let him go let
leave it to fate
Let him go let him go Leave it to fate Leave it to fate Let him go Leave it to fate

Maybe you want to see you look for you You have the Power you have the power
