

SURRENDER TO LOVE

(di Fraternali)

Catch me now, call my name again
follow me, like a spy.
Touch me now, find my lips again
set my fire, I'm your slave.

Surrender to love, walking through the darkness
I'm falling with you, rolling in the blindness
just mad about you, I forget my sadness
a picture of you, fade away the sorrow.

(instrumental)

Lazy game, under your embrace
let me play, close to you.
Hold me tight, trust on my desire
set my fire, I'm your slave.

Surrender to love, walking through the darkness
I'm falling with you, rolling in the blindness
just mad about you, I forget my sadness
a picture of you, fade away the sorrow.

I wait for the rainbow
to smile and release pain, to the sky
imagine, the colors around us and behind Please tell me,
how deep is your whisper in the dark
I'm ready for lust and for fever.
